“Hawks and Owls: Those Magnificent Raptors!”

A program by author and naturalist Chris G. Earley

Interpretive Biologist and Education Coordinator of the Arboretum at the University of Guelph in Ontario, Canada. Mr. Earley has written four bird guides published by Firefly Books (<http://www.fireflybooks.com/Nature/Birds.html>), including Hawks and Owls of the Great Lakes Region and Eastern North America. The other titles cover warblers, waterfowl, and sparrows and finches. He is an instructor for bird workshops and art classes at the Arboretum, and also a trip leader for Quest Nature Tours. He has led excursions to Africa, Greenland, and southern Canada.

Copies of Chris Earley’s books will be available for purchase at the dinner, autographed by the author. Don’t miss this wonderful opportunity! BAS is also hosting a field trip with Mr. Earley on April 9 and 10; see our field trip page (<http://burroughs.org/field.htm>) for further details!

DOOR PRIZES! All attendees will be eligible to win one of two $25 gift certificates to the Wild Bird Center at Corinth Square in Prairie Village, Kansas.

Our auction will feature many valuable items, including: birding books, jewelry, artwork, feeders, and optics. We are accepting auction donations until April 1. If you have an item you would like to donate, contact Mike Stoakes at 816-554-1956 or mstoakes@juno.com.
