Providing food and habitat for birds and wildlife from autumn through early spring is both educational and rewarding!

Plantings for all
environments - from decks and patios to yards and acreages - will be covered.

Join in the fun and insight of gardening for birds and wildlife during the cooler months ahead!

EAGLE DAYS

Missouri's winter eagle watching is spectacular. If you can't make it to one of MDC's many Eagle Days events, browse their best-places list for locations to enjoy eagle-viewing on your own. From late December through early February, watch for eagles perched in large trees along the water's edge. Get out early in the morning to see the eagles flying and fishing!
