Providing food and habitat for birds and wildlife through fall, winter and into early spring is both educational and rewarding!

Valuable information for all environments: from decks and patios to yards and woodland edge.

Join in the fun and insight of gardening for birds and wildlife in the cooler months!

EAGLE DAYS

Missouri's winter eagle watching is spectacular. If you can't make it to one of MDC's many Eagle Days events, browse their best-places list for locations to enjoy eagle-viewing on your own. From late December through early February, watch for eagles perched in large trees along the water's edge. Get out early in the morning to see the eagles flying and fishing!
